

Since 1985, The Tomorrow Fund has provided daily Financial and Emotional Support to children with cancer, treated at Hasbro Children's Hospital, and their families every step of the way - from the day of diagnosis throughout the entire course of treatment, into recovery and beyond.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

- Assistance with home, medical and daily expenses as the need arises
- Hospital Parking Passes for the duration of treatment
- Daily stipends for inpatient care
- Travel stipends for out of state treatment
- Scholarship Fund for college-bound patients
- Camp Dotty & Camp Tomorrow, for patients and their siblings
- Survivorship Program offers continued emotional support and assistance with financial costs associated with "latent effects" due to cancer treatments
- Funeral Fund assisting families when their child has lost their courageous battle

EMOTIONAL SUPPORT

- Pediatric Oncology Social Workers who work with each child and their family
- A Parent Consultant who provides emotional support to parents
- A Child Life Specialist who engages patients in therapeutic play at clinic
- Support Groups for children and families (Survivorship and Bereavement)
